

The Telephone Privacy Act should not be weakened. We got several calls a week before we registered with the State. Now we get perhaps one a month and I reply to it "NO THANK YOU." I suggest a change: Eliminate computer calls from political candidates. Though I may not vote for their opponents, I never have voted nor will I vote for a politician who thinks so little of my time as to force him/herself upon me.